Cupboard Door

A Collection of Poetry
Hood Poetry Series-Book 1

Cupboard Door is no ordinary book of poetry. A lifelong student of the human condition, author Karen Jean Matsko Hood draws from her passionate advocacy for children's rights, while bringing awareness to the issues of the indignities of abuse and homeless children. These issues are forefront in the images used in this collection of poems. At times thought provoking, reflective, angry, and even enlightening, the works on these pages are sure to pierce your heart and ignite your imagination. This collection will be long remembered by all who read and share Hood's passion for human rights. It makes a wonderful conversation piece, and you will be certain to enjoy reading it time and again. Give yourself or a special person Cupboard Door to add some fresh and poignant wisdom to your libraries.
